The Seven Hills School - Class of 2020

SEVEN HILLS HIGHLIGHTS
- All students take an advanced college preparatory curriculum
- Financial Aid awarded to 31% of Upper School students
- Students come from 68 ZIP codes
- Student body includes 32% students of color
- Flexible Credit – Alternative ways of earning credit through online, college or self-designed and mentored projects
- Study Abroad – Exchange/home-stay experiences in China, France, Spain, and Greece and Italy
- Athletics: 85% of students play a team sport
- Arts: 80% of the Class of 2019 took arts courses beyond our requirements

ACADEMIC RIGOR
- Admission to Honors and AP courses is selective and depends on past performance and departmental approval. Due to the rigor of our requirements
- AP and Post-AP Courses: College Prep with pre-req: no weight, College Prep with pre-req: additional +.25 weight, Honors Courses: additional +.5 weight, AP and Post-AP Courses: additional +1.0 weight
- “Pass” is given no weight but is computed in credits earned. Full course list by weight is available at: 7hills.org/weighting

EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING
This program helps students develop self-awareness of where their interests lie, facilitates exploration of those interests, and provides students with pertinent real-world experiences through job shadows, internships, community service, college course work, and other relevant activities. Students may elect to earn concentrations in such fields as Community Engagement, Environmental Stewardship, Global Citizenship, Political Engagement, The Arts, Technology and Innovation, Engineering and Design, Integrated Wellness, or Social Justice.

MAY TERM INTENSIVES
After spring exams, when all regular classes are finished, our ninth-, tenth-, and eleventh-graders choose a one-week experiential education course to finish the year. Some examples: furniture design and construction, food production and processing, medical careers, architecture and murals, and many more.
